中央書院歷史 History of Central School

中央書院有逾 100 年歷史，於 1862 年在歌賦街創校，是第一所為市民大眾提供高小和中學教育的政府學校。該校標誌了香港公眾教育的發展新階段。早年，香港島只有數間由本地中國人所開辦而得到政府資助的小型學校提供教育。至於公眾教育，則由教會學校提供，而這些教會學校基本上並無得到政府資助。中央書院的設立，揭示了政府有意以不涉宗教的方向改革教育，並且開辦政府本身的學校。

The Central School has a history of over a century. It started operation at Gough Street in 1862. It was the first Government school providing upper primary and secondary education to the public. Its opening marked a new phase in the development of public education in Hong Kong. In the early years, education on Hong Kong Island was provided in a few small schools run by local Chinese with subsidy from Government. Public education was provided by missionary schools which received practically no financial support from Government. The establishment of the Central School heralded the Government's intention to reform education on a secular basis and to establish its own school.

人才盡出 Prominent Graduates of Central School

中央書院的畢業生中，不少成為社會領袖人物，有些更在內地的商行和政府中身居要職。中央書院舊生中成為內地和香港歷史重要人物的包括何福議員、何啓爵士、何甘棠先生、何東爵士、劉鑄伯議員，當然還有孫中山先生(孫逸仙醫生)，他在 1884 年入讀中央書院，當時 18 歲，並於 1886 年離校。雖然中央書院在孫中山先生離校後由歌賦街遷往荷李活道，但孫先生和該校所培訓的其他社會精英，一直是香港的珍貴回憶。

Among the graduates of Central School, many emerged as community leaders including those who held high positions in commercial firms and the administration of Mainland China. Exemplary old boys of the Central School who became important figures in the history of Mainland China and Hong Kong included the Hon Ho Fook, Sir Ho Kai, Mr Ho Kom Tong, Sir Robert Ho Tung, the Hon Lau Chu-pak and, last but not least, Dr Sun Yat-sen, who gained admission to the Central School in 1884 at the age of 18 and left in 1886. Although the Central School was moved from Gough Street to Hollywood Road after Dr Sun had left the School, the association of Dr Sun and those exemplary social figures with the School is a valuable memory for Hong Kong.
